Over And Over

(Nana Mouskouri)

I never dare to reach for the moon

I never thought I'd know heaven so soon

I couldn't hope to say how I feel

The joy in my heart no words can reveal

Over and over I whisper your name

Over and over I kiss you again

I see the light of love in your eyes

Love is forever, no more good-byes

Now just a memory the tears that I cried

Now just a memory the sighs that I sighed

Dreams that I cherished all have come true

All my tomorrows I give to you

Life's summer leaves may turn into gold

The love that we share will never grow old

Here in your arms no words far away

Her in your arms forever I'll stay

Refrain twice

Lai...la...la...lai
